A Show Jumping Collective

2021 Advertising Rates

Grayt Times is the only nationally distributed show jumping magazine and online resource. Exclusive content is developed for readers including coverage of current events and trends, competition results, editorials, special features, and everything related to show jumping in Canada.

We are pleased to announce the return of our print magazine thanks to popular demand, with 2021 publications coming out in February, May, August and November! Distribution will be throughout Canada at horse shows, special events, tack stores and retailers that cater to show jumping clientele. The print magazine will complement our online presence as we continue to develop content for our extensive website.

Subscribers call Grayt Times the place they look to for everything they need to know about show jumping!
